
APPENDIX A

CBSC Decision 11/12-1317 CIVT-TV (CTV British Columbia) re a report on CTV News at 11:30 ("Tandoori Fire")

CTV British Columbia's broadcasts its late evening newscast began at 11:30 pm. On February 22, 2012, the newscast was anchored by Coleen Christie. The report in question was entitled "Tandoori Fire". It was the second story covered in the newscast, beginning 2 minutes 42 seconds into the broadcast. The following is a description and transcription of the report:

Christie: A huge fire has gutted a popular Indian restaurant in East Vancouver. Flames engulfed Tandoori King in the eight thousand block of Fraser Street this evening. The fire started just before six o'clock. Everyone in the building was able to get out and there were no injuries, but the blaze was large and hard to fight.

[images of fire and firefighters on scene; caption "New Tonight: East Vancouver"; close-up of sign that reads "Tandoori"] interview with Chief Rod MacDonald, Vancouver Fire: The fire got into the roof, which, uh, makes it very, very difficult to fight. We had, uh, about twelve, uh, firefighters on the interior for an attack and eventually we had to pull them out due to the heavy fire and smoke.

[close-up image of food cooking in a frying pan; caption at bottom of screen "File"]

Christie: The Tandoori King restaurant has been in the news before. For more than a decade, the owner has been in a bitter feud with his brother-in-law who runs a restaurant called the Original Tandoori King just down the block.

[exterior view of building at corner of Fraser St. & E 64th St. with sign "Tandoori King Restaurant"; camera pans to show another building with sign "The Original Tandoori King; close-up of smaller sign that reads "There is only one original ... Tandoori King".]

interview with Manjit Kooner, Tandoori King Restaurant: We're, you know, not associating with them anymore.

[two men sitting side by side] comment from Interpreter for Sharanjit Kahlon: He has harassed him so much that he never thinks of, like, about the person.

Christie: Firefighters don't know the cause of the blaze. They say the roof of the building has been burnt off and water and smoke damage is extensive.

[more footage of firefighters at scene of blaze]